

Diversity and Inclusion in Labour Organizations Training Course

Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Trade Unions	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

Diversity and Inclusion (D&I) in labour organizations has become a strategic imperative for building equitable workplaces, sustainable labour relations, and inclusive economic growth. In today's rapidly evolving global labour market, organizations that embrace workplace diversity, equity, inclusion (DEI), social justice, and human rights compliance are better positioned to enhance productivity, employee engagement, and collective bargaining outcomes. Labour organizations play a critical role in ensuring that all workers regardless of gender, ethnicity, disability, age, religion, or socio-economic background are represented fairly and empowered equally within decision-making structures.

Diversity and Inclusion in Labour Organizations Training Course equips participants with practical and policy-driven competencies to design and implement inclusive labour systems, anti-discrimination frameworks, equitable hiring practices, and culturally responsive leadership models. It integrates global best practices, International Labour Organization (ILO) standards, and modern DEI analytics to strengthen institutional capacity. Participants will gain hands-on skills in addressing workplace bias, improving representation, and embedding inclusive leadership, psychological safety, and equitable workforce transformation strategies into labour organizations.
