Course Introduction

Gender and Lifelong Learning Training Course emphasizes gender-responsive learning strategies, highlighting the integration of equity, empowerment, and inclusivity in lifelong learning pathways. Participants will explore the intersections of gender norms, social equity, and adult education, enabling them to design programs that empower diverse learners across all life stages. The course is anchored in innovative pedagogies, participatory methodologies, and transformative learning principles, equipping learners with actionable tools to influence policy, institutional practices, and community-based initiatives.

By addressing systemic barriers and promoting gender equality in education, this course prepares professionals, educators, and policymakers to implement inclusive learning frameworks. Participants will engage with real-world case studies, policy analysis, and participatory exercises, ensuring practical understanding of gender-responsive lifelong learning approaches. Through this program, learners will develop competencies in curriculum design, advocacy, mentorship, and digital literacy, fostering sustainable educational ecosystems that recognize and celebrate diversity.
