

Gender in Local Governance Training Course

Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Gender Studies	Duration	10 Days
Base Fee	$3,000 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

Gender in Local Governance training course is designed to empower local government officials, policymakers, civil society actors, and community leaders with critical insights on gender mainstreaming, inclusive decision-making, and equitable service delivery. In an era where sustainable development, social equity, and community engagement are key, understanding gender dynamics is essential for building transparent, accountable, and participatory governance structures. Participants will explore frameworks for gender-responsive planning, policy analysis, and advocacy to foster inclusive local development.

This course emphasizes practical approaches to integrating gender perspectives into budgeting, public service provision, and leadership roles within local governance. Using real-world case studies, interactive workshops, and participatory exercises, learners will gain actionable skills to enhance gender equality, reduce social disparities, and drive community empowerment. By the end of the program, participants will be equipped to champion gender-sensitive governance initiatives that align with global standards and local priorities.
