Global Counter-Terrorism Policy and Strategy Training Course

Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Defense and Security	Duration	10 Days
Base Fee	$3,000 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

Global counter-terrorism has evolved into a complex, multidimensional field driven by geopolitical tensions, extremist ideologies, cyber threats, and transnational networks that operate across borders. Nations, regional blocs, and international organizations are continuously adapting their strategies to address emerging forms of terrorism, including digitally facilitated radicalization, lone-actor attacks, cross-border insurgencies, and the misuse of financial systems. Global Counter-Terrorism Policy and Strategy Training Course equips participants with the analytical, operational, and strategic knowledge required to understand global terrorism dynamics and the key policy frameworks shaping international counter-terrorism cooperation.

Participants will deepen their understanding of intelligence coordination, threat assessment, crisis response, and multilateral security governance. The course integrates global best practices, comparative policy insights, preventive strategies, counter-narrative development, and the role of technology in surveillance and disruption. Through scenario-based learning and case studies, participants strengthen their capacity to design integrated strategies, enhance institutional resilience, and support decision-making at national, regional, and global levels.

Global Counter-Terrorism Policy and Strategy Training Course

Introduction

Global counter-terrorism has evolved into a complex, multidimensional field driven by geopolitical tensions, extremist ideologies, cyber threats, and transnational networks that operate across borders. Nations, regional blocs, and international organizations are continuously adapting their strategies to address emerging forms of terrorism, including digitally facilitated radicalization, lone-actor attacks, cross-border insurgencies, and the misuse of financial systems. Global Counter-Terrorism Policy and Strategy Training Course equips participants with the analytical, operational, and strategic knowledge required to understand global terrorism dynamics and the key policy frameworks shaping international counter-terrorism cooperation.

Participants will deepen their understanding of intelligence coordination, threat assessment, crisis response, and multilateral security governance. The course integrates global best practices, comparative policy insights, preventive strategies, counter-narrative development, and the role of technology in surveillance and disruption. Through scenario-based learning and case studies, participants strengthen their capacity to design integrated strategies, enhance institutional resilience, and support decision-making at national, regional, and global levels.

Course Objectives

1. Understand global terrorism trends and geopolitical factors shaping extremist threats.
2. Analyze international counter-terrorism policies, agreements, and UN frameworks.
3. Examine intelligence-sharing models and cross-border operational coordination.
4. Assess radicalization pathways, recruitment drivers, and prevention strategies.
5. Strengthen national-level counter-terrorism policy-making and institutional capacity.
6. Evaluate cyber-enabled terrorism and digital extremist ecosystems.
7. Apply risk assessment tools for threat detection and scenario analysis.
8. Review counter-financing of terrorism (CFT) mechanisms and sanctions regimes.
9. Develop crisis response, incident coordination, and emergency communication protocols.
10. Understand legal, ethical, and human rights considerations in counter-terrorism.
11. Strengthen multilateral cooperation among states, agencies, and regional bodies.
12. Integrate technology, data analytics, and innovative tools into counter-terrorism strategies.
13. Build comprehensive national and organizational counter-terrorism strategies.
