Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Corporate Governance	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

Governance in Hospitality and Tourism Training Course is designed to equip professionals with advanced knowledge and practical skills in corporate governance, ethical leadership, regulatory compliance, and sustainable tourism management. As the global hospitality and tourism industry continues to expand, organizations must implement strong governance frameworks, risk management strategies, and transparent decision-making processes to maintain competitiveness, protect stakeholders, and ensure long-term sustainability. This course explores modern governance models, accountability systems, stakeholder engagement practices, and policy frameworks that drive operational excellence in hotels, resorts, travel companies, and tourism authorities.

Participants will gain insights into governance structures, board responsibilities, corporate social responsibility, ESG principles, transparency mechanisms, and regulatory frameworks shaping the hospitality and tourism sector. Through practical case studies, industry best practices, and strategic governance tools, learners will understand how to implement effective governance policies, manage risks, strengthen ethical standards, and enhance institutional credibility. The course also addresses emerging issues such as sustainable tourism governance, digital transformation oversight, crisis management governance, and stakeholder trust management within tourism ecosystems.
