

Handling Workplace Discrimination Cases Training Course

Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Trade Unions	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

In the contemporary corporate landscape, fostering Workplace Equity and Inclusion is no longer a peripheral HR goal but a strategic imperative. Organizations are increasingly adopting a Holistic Approach to dismantle systemic barriers and address Modern Racism, which often manifests as Subtle Prejudice rather than overt exclusion. Handling Workplace Discrimination Cases Training Course is designed to move beyond compliance-driven models, focusing instead on Inclusive Leadership and the mitigation of Unconscious Bias to create a psychologically safe environment for all employees.

The curriculum integrates advanced psychological frameworks, such as the Multi-method Approach to Train Equity (MATE), to bridge the gap between awareness and action. By emphasizing Perspective-Taking and Social Norms, participants will develop a shared vocabulary to navigate complex issues like Microaggressions and Intersectionality. This proactive strategy empowers the workforce to transform from passive observers into Active Agents of change, ensuring that Equal Opportunity is embedded in the organizational culture.
