

Media Interaction for Public Projects Training Course

Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Project Management	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

Effective media interaction is a critical success factor for public projects operating in high-visibility, stakeholder-driven environments. Media Interaction for Public Projects Training Course equips public sector professionals with strategic communication skills to manage media relations, public narratives, crisis communication, and stakeholder trust. Participants gain practical insights into media ecosystems, press engagement strategies, message framing, and reputation management to ensure transparency, accountability, and public confidence in government and donor-funded projects.

The course emphasizes real-world public project scenarios where media scrutiny, political sensitivity, and public opinion directly influence project outcomes. Through applied learning, simulations, and case studies, participants learn to proactively engage journalists, manage interviews, handle misinformation, and align communication strategies with public governance standards. The program supports improved project credibility, risk mitigation, and sustainable public engagement.
