

Microfinance Client Grievance Management Systems Training Course

Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Microfinance & Financial Inclusion	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

Effective grievance management systems are essential for microfinance institutions (MFIs) to handle client complaints efficiently, safeguard customer trust, and ensure operational sustainability. Poorly managed grievances can lead to dissatisfaction, reputational damage, and regulatory penalties, impacting both client retention and financial inclusion objectives. Establishing a robust grievance management framework enables MFIs to respond promptly, fairly, and transparently to client concerns.

Microfinance Client Grievance Management Systems Training Course equips participants with practical knowledge, tools, and strategies to implement and manage client grievance systems in microfinance operations. Through case studies, interactive exercises, and global best practices, participants will learn to design structured complaint handling processes, monitor grievance resolution, leverage technology for efficiency, and integrate continuous improvement mechanisms to foster a client-centric culture.
