Category	Research and Data Analysis	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

In the era of digital storytelling and community-driven advocacy, Photovoice and Participatory Visuals have emerged as transformative tools for social change. These methodologies empower individuals and communities to visually articulate their experiences, challenges, and aspirations. By harnessing the power of visual narratives, participatory research, and community engagement, this training equips participants with practical skills to create compelling imagery that drives policy influence, social awareness, and grassroots action. Through this course, learners will explore the intersection of art, activism, and research, enabling them to generate authentic, inclusive, and impactful visual content.

Participants will gain hands-on experience in the entire photovoice process, from conceptualization to ethical storytelling and dissemination. Photovoice and Participatory Visuals Training Course emphasizes critical thinking, visual literacy, participatory methods, and digital storytelling, ensuring participants can effectively engage with diverse communities. By integrating case studies, real-world applications, and collaborative exercises, this training fosters creativity, analytical skills, and advocacy-oriented mindsets. Learners will leave with the confidence and practical expertise to implement participatory visual projects that catalyze social change, amplify marginalized voices, and enhance community-driven research initiatives.
