Training Course on Defined Contribution (DC) Plan Administration and Oversight

Introduction

Training Course on Defined Contribution (DC) Plan Administration and Oversight is designed to equip participants with the essential knowledge and practical skills necessary for effective management and oversight of defined contribution pension plans. As employers continue to shift from traditional defined benefit plans to defined contribution plans, understanding the complexities of DC plan administration has become increasingly important. This course addresses the critical aspects of plan design, compliance, investment options, and participant education, enabling professionals to ensure the smooth operation and success of DC plans.

Throughout this course, attendees will explore key topics such as plan governance, fiduciary responsibilities, investment strategies, and regulatory compliance. The curriculum combines theoretical insights with practical applications, featuring case studies and interactive discussions that engage participants in real-world scenarios. By the end of the training, attendees will have a comprehensive understanding of how to effectively administer and oversee DC plans, ensuring that participants are well-prepared for retirement. Additionally, the course will address potential challenges, such as participant engagement, market volatility, and regulatory changes, ensuring participants are equipped to navigate the complexities of DC plan administration.
